FACTORS AND CONSIDERATIONS IN DETERMINATIONS REGARDING SUITABILITY

Check any that apply:

- The covered individual withheld consent to a criminal history search required by the award condition.
- The covered individual knowingly made a false statement that affected, or was intended to affect, any search required by the award condition.
- The covered individual is listed as a sex offender on the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Registry.
- The covered individual's criminal history does not meet the suitability criteria set forth in the award condition.
- The covered individual is determined by a federal, state, tribal, or local government agency not to be suitable.

NOTE: The award condition prohibits any recipient or subrecipient organization from determining that a covered individual is suitable to interact with participating minors if any of the disqualifying factors or considerations listed above have been identified.

WRITTEN DETERMINATION OF SUITABILITY TO INTERACT WITH PARTICIPATING MINORS

Based on the review of results of the searches listed in this checklist, and the factors and considerations identified above, the following determination of suitability to interact with participating minors has been made:

- The covered individual is deemed suitable to interact with participating minors.
- The covered individual is NOT deemed suitable to interact with participating minors.

Date of Written Determination

NOTE: Subrecipients must update all required searches and reexamine the covered individual's suitability based on those search results and taking into account the factors and considerations specified by the award condition every two (2) years. When appropriate, the determination of suitability must be modified or withdrawn.
